

Work that matters!

I really like that every day is different.

I'm a support manager, but also I'm a personal stylist, a shoe shopper, a hair dresser and a cook!

I had never worked with people with disabilities or different challenges. Once you get used to it, everything is going to be very easy for you.

Community Living Connections, Inc. (CLC) is a local nonprofit agency that supports adults with disabilities to live their best life in their own home and community. We believe that individuals, regardless of ability, deserve equal opportunities to create their "best life"; they just need additional support in order to do so.

You can make a real difference in someone's life! It's more than a caregiver. Supported Living Staff help with planning, personal cares, medical support, finances, relationship building, and so much more! We work in partnership with people throughout their lifetime! Apply today! Work where your heart is.
