The WorkSmart Network is your local source for career exploration, training and jobs in South Central Wisconsin.

You might be a career changer, a credential seeker, an entry-level worker, a laid off worker, a worker with a conviction, a veteran or maybe an older worker. We have resources to help you.

Career Planning

- Discover your skills and interests with self-assessments
- Learn about careers (career profiles, salaries and hot industries)
- Plan your career (goal-setting and professional development plans)

Skill Building

- Find the education and training options that fit you
- Explore types of training (apprenticeships, short-term training and certifications)
- Learn about options to pay for training (including WIOA programs)

Job Search

- Plan your job search (researching employers and how to apply in a digital world)
- Get help connecting with local companies that are hiring
- Build and polish your resume with advice from career advisors
- Get interview ready
- Prepare for the transition to the job and keep the job

Supportive Help

- Find local help and services in your neighborhood and community
- Connect with workforce partners at your American Job Center
- Learn about support services with WIOA to move you forward
